Some publications have reported on when TikTok has received funding, with one publication stating "The Beijing-based parent company of the messaging app started more than five years ago as a site for sharing short video clips. It is thought to have been the first social network that allows users to post videos — essentially short video films — aimed at helping them find friends and build real-life connections. The company was later renamed as ByteDance and announced it would launch an IPO in Hong Kong this month." This article was published on CNNMoney.",

The app is available for iOS and Android devices. The app offers videos that users can record themselves, add filters and music and post publicly or privately to the app. Users can also create custom stickers and can accompany their videos with animated emoji called "TikTok" which are meant to express emotions such as laughter or sadness. The company uses artificial intelligence in its video recommendation algorithms to help users find popular videos, allowing them to engage with each other's content as well.",
